7th International Conference on the Conservation of the Eastern Imperial Eagle

2-5 October 2013, Barónka Hotel, Bratislava, Slovakia

With kind support from International Visegrad Fund

2nd OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

INTRODUCTION

7th International Conference for the Conservation of the EIE will be held in Bratislava, Slovakia, on 2-5 October 2013. It will be organized by the Raptor Protection of Slovakia in cooperation with MME/BirdLife Hungary, Czech Society for Ornithology and with support from Ministry of the Environment of the Slovak Republic and the International Visegrad Fund.

The Conference is a part of long-term continuous effort to preserve this rare species that started by establishing the International Imperial Eagle Working Group in 1990. Before this Conference, six international meetings were held between 1990 and 2013.

The Conference will be focused on following topics:

- recent population status and trends,
- biology and ecology of the species,
- endangering factors,
- conservation activities and experiences,
- review of the International Action Plan for the Imperial Eagle (Aquila heliaca).

The topics will be presented by presentations and posters and discussed during workshops / round tables, which will be held during 3 – 4 October 2013.

A field trip will be organized on 5 October 2013 to a historical Imperial Eagle nesting site in neighbouring area in the Little Carpathians mountain.

A detailed program of the Conference will be available until 31 August 2013.

The VENUE OF THE MEETING will be the Baronka Hotel, Bratislava, Slovakia (see the details below). OFFICIAL LANGUAGE of the Conference will be English.
